Diocese of Knoxville Youth Code of Conduct for Youth Events

The use of drugs, tobacco, alcohol, fireworks, matches, cigarette lighters, or items that would endanger people, pets, wildlife, or property are strictly prohibited.

Clothing must be church appropriate. Exposed midriffs, cleavage, or undergarments are not permitted. Spaghetti straps, short shorts, halter tops, baggy pants, and any clothing item found to be offensive or bearing reference to tobacco or alcohol products including insignias or advertisements will not be allowed. Any participant whose attire is deemed not appropriate will be asked to change. Refusal could lead to dismissal.

Language and behavior should exemplify Christian values.

Public displays of affection will be addressed when deemed inappropriate.

Participants are expected to respect the rights and property of others. Neither vandalism nor stealing will be tolerated. Financial obligations that result from such behavior will be the sole responsibility of the youth and his/her family.

If applicable, participants must wear their event identification at all times.

No participants are permitted to leave the premises without the expressed permission of the coordinator of the event or youth minister.

Boom boxes, cd players, video games and personal electronic devices are not permitted due to the inherent likelihood that they will distract the young person from the youth event at hand.

Exceptions are to be made by the event coordinator. No Cell phones, we will take up at the beginning of the weekend.

No participants are allowed to ride in a car with another participant to, from, or during an event unless expressed written permission has been given by a parent/guardian to the parish coordinator of youth ministry.

Each participant is expected to participate in all activities of the event. The coordinator will address any infraction.

Participants are to abide by specific regulations pertaining to individual events not mentioned above.

Note: The coordinating team takes every precaution to provide a safe environment for these events. The coordinating team cannot be held responsible for the willful misconduct of a young person.

Code of Conduct: I agree that my child is expected to abide by all rules and regulations as outlined in the Code of Conduct. I agree that if my child fails to abide by this Code or engages in any infraction that is deemed by the coordinator to be inappropriate, he/she will be dismissed from this activity and sent home at my expense with no right of reimbursement.

SEARCH for Christian Maturity

Philosophy & Purpose

SEARCH is facilitated by teens for teens with the guidance of adult SEARCH Coordinators. The main focus of the retreat is three fold:

- Fostering participants' personal relationship with Christ
- Encouraging participant's involvement in ministry within their respective parishes
- Promoting discipleship

SEARCH for Christian Maturity is a retreat weekend that tries to help high school juniors and seniors see how they can be faith leaders in their schools and parishes. This is done by having the participants come to know God, themselves, and others in a more loving, personal way.

SEARCH is not a means purposely set up to correct one's character, morals, emotions or troubled school or family life. It is a method of providing people with a way of encountering themselves, others and God in a way which is unique and powerful. SEARCH helps people to see the need to bring their spiritual life into more conscious contact with their day-to-day living.

The essential component of SEARCH is its youth-to-youth approach, referred to as peer ministry. This component cannot be stressed enough; other programs can be valuable, but no one can talk with and relate to another better than a peer.

So, SEARCH is basically a weekend experience in Christian living. It is designed to help people see their value as human beings and members of a loving community. This happens as the team and the Searchers share their thoughts, feelings and ideas. Participants are then challenged to take their growth and ideas back to their families, schools and parish communities.

Central Elements

There are six elements that we hope each SEARCH weekend will highlight and that each participant will take away from the retreat. These central elements are:

Trust Sharing Community Prayer Growth Fun

Time Frame for the Weekend

SEARCH is a full, time-consuming weekend that begins immediately after school on Friday for the team members (7:00-7:30 PM for the participants) and ends on Sunday at 5:00 PM Mass for participants, and 6:00 PM for team members. Mass is celebrated at 3:00 PM and all are invited.

What will happen?

You will participate in large and small group discussions, team building activities, learning to trust, Mass, Reconciliation, prayer services and of course fun....meeting youth from all over the deanery and some of them will become close friends. You will bond with your Search community, but will be challenged to go back into your family, church and school communities to share what you have learned.

Trust the process. Keep the faith. The best is yet to come .
